EXT. SPACE COLONY DAY

A sleek shuttle descends and lands gracefully on the landing pad.

INT. SHUTTLE CABIN CONTINUOUS

YASMIN FLETCHER (30s, determined, with an air of quiet intensity) sits in the cabin alone, staring out at the colony through tinted windows.

The door opens. THEO PETROV (early 30s, warm smile but calculating eyes) steps inside.

THEO
Finally made it back from Earth! How've you been?

Yasmin looks up at him and smiles briefly before turning her gaze back outside.

YASMIN
Busy as always. You know how it is herenever a dull moment when life keeps evolving around us.

Theo walks over and sits beside her, leaning closer with interest.

THEO
Speaking of which have you noticed those weird mutations lately? The rapid changes in flora and fauna?

YASMIN
(nods)
Yes. It's unlike anything we've seen beforeaccelerated evolution that defies natural timelines. Something's causing this to speed up exponentially...

2

Suddenlythe shuttle jolts violently as an alarm blares throughout the cabin.

PILOT (V. O.)
Emergency! Biological contamination detected!

Theo instinctively pulls Yasmin down into his arms just as a greenish mist floods into the cabin through a cracked vent pipe.

They cough violently as their vision blurs

INT./EXT VARIOUS LOCATIONS QUICK CUTS

- A technician collapses mid-step; his body visibly contorts unnaturally.
- Plants surrounding the research facility twist wildly toward unnatural shapes.
- Animals nearby exhibit bizarre new features glowing eyes, extra limbs moving erratically.
- The sky darkens ominously overhead; clouds swirl unnervingly fast across alien terrain

BACK TO SHUTTLE CABIN:

Slowly, the mist dissipates. The alarms fall silent. Yasmin blinks awake first. She glances around franticallythen notices

Theo lying motionless beside her. His skin has turned pale gray, and strange veins are visible beneath his neck and wrists.

Her breath catches in horror

Before she can react furthera low growl rumbles from deep within his throat. He suddenly lunges forward, barking loudly like some feral creature. Then he shifts abruptlyand without warninghe bites deeply into Yasmin's forearm!

She screams sharply, pulling away quickly. The wound bleeds heavily, but she doesn't hesitate. She grabs HIS THROAT tightly with one hand while pressing hard against HIS JAW WITH HER OTHER HANDto control him. By sheer force of will, she pins him firmly against her chest

Her voice breaksbut determination steels every word:

YASMIN (CONT'D)
Theo fight it! Whatever this thing isit's not you. You're stronger than this please... come back to me!

His body trembles violently under hers. But slowlythe wildness begins to fade. Breathing raggedly, HIS EYES CLEAR AND

THEN THEY LOCK ONTO HERS. WEAKLY AT FIRST THEN FULL OF RECOGNITION AND RELIEF. He reaches for her face gentlywith trembling handsas if afraid she might vanish any second

THEO
(hoarse whisper) Yassie... I'm sorry. I couldn't protect youI failed again...

Tears spill down Yasmin's cheeks without hesitation. She shakes off all exhaustion instantly, and grips both sides of his face firmly. Looking straight into those familiar brown eyes, she forces herself calm even though everything inside still aches

With steady resolve, Yasmin presses their foreheads together. And softly whispers:

4

(tears falling freely)... You didn't fail me. You saved my life. That means everything, to me. So please... don't say such things anymore. I need your strength now more than ever. We have work to doand I won't let go until we finish what we started. Do you understand?

He nods weakly. As if reassured by something unseen between them. A flicker of warmth returns to his expression. Just enough for hope

But thena sudden thought strikes her like lightning. Yasmin stiffens completely. Tightening every muscle in terror

Her voice cuts sharp through silence :

(frozen realization)... Oh no what if they knew about our relationship?! What if they suspect us?!

She yanks open the compartment door next to them. Pulls out TWO IDENTICAL UNIFORM JACKETS. Slaps one onto Hunter immediately. Then shoves another jacket right onto herself. Without any hesitation or remorse, she turns abruptly toward Hunterand points directly at him. Shaking slightly but forcing absolute authority:

YASMIN(CONT'D)
(stern command)You stay here. Stay put. Don't move until I get back. And whatever happensdon't follow me. Never show yourself outside these walls. Do you hear me?!

Hunter freezes for half a beat. Then snaps fully alert. Immediately gripping both sides of Yasmin's shoulders. He shakes lightly once. More insistently twice. A final firm shake. Before stepping backward smoothly. Lifting himself carefully off hers. In perfect sync. They separate cleanly. A synchronized turn. At exactly same time. They adjust their jackets simultaneously. And walk apart without looking back.(One goes left. One goes right.)

Their footsteps echo separately down opposite hallways. Two distinct rhythms reverberate throughout empty corridors. No glance. No pause. No sign. Of anything beyond professional distance. Or personal connection. Whatsoever.

The shuttle rocks amid the gale. Yasmin grips her seat, eyes darting to Theo.

YASMIN
Theo... I'm sorry.

THEO

It's okay, Yasmin. You need to protect yourself and your research.

YASMIN
(fighting tears)
I couldn't bring you along...

Theo reaches out, gently brushing her cheek.

THEO
You did what you had to do. I'll be fine here.

Suddenly, his expression darkenspain flickers across his face. His hand trembles as he clutches his chest tightly before collapsing unconscious in the Pilot's seat.

Yasmin stares at him for a long beat, then turns back toward the cockpit glass with determination burning in her eyes.

YASMIN (V. O.)
I will find a way back for you, Theo... no matter what it takes.

EXT. ALIEN PLANET SURFACE - NIGHT

A fierce storm rages outside the research station window as Yasmin paces restlessly inside with Hunter following closely behind her like an obedient shadow . The room is dimly lit by monitors displaying fluctuating data and maps of surrounding terrain .

HUNTER
Ma'am , it's too dangerous out there . We should wait until morning when visibility improves .

Yasmin stops pacing and faces him , clutching a small vial of blood sample tightly in one hand while pulling off her lab coat with other hand revealing simple white T-shirt underneath . Her voice is cold but firm .

7

I don't have time for caution anymore ! Every second counts if we're going stop these mutations from spreading ! This blood sample might hold key clues about how this virus works and how we can reverse engineer an antidote !

HUNTER
But ma'am! It's pitch black outside; even equipped explorers struggle under these conditions!

Before she can respond , Hunter grabs another jacket from nearby table handing it over quickly then starts helping put on thermal gear layer by layer without waiting for answer .

When she finally finishes dressing herself completely , He leads way towards exit door opening it wide letting gusts wind hit them full force .

Outside winds howl fiercely around them ; rain pelts down relentlessly soaking through their clothes almost instantly .

Yasmin shivers slightly but refuses wear additional layers preferring remain light enough move swiftly despite weather

Hunter watches anxiously before speaking again :

HUNTER
Are you sure about this ?

She nods decisively gripping vial tighter than ever before looking straight ahead into darkness beyond horizon line where

We've got about ten minutes before we reach the station. Stay close.

Yasmin nods and quickens her pace, eyes scanning every shadowy corner of the deserted path.

HUNTER

He reaches for her hand again only to be pushed aside by Theo'S SNEERING GRIP on Yasmin's wrist.

YASMIN
(straining against him) Let go of me!

Her eyes flicker toward the door a faint hope she might escape if only given a moment alone. But Theo tightens his grip instead, turning back toward Hunter with cruel amusement.

THEO

You think just because you saved her life once... she'll stay loyal? She'll always belong to someone stronger. Someone smarter... like me.

Yasmin struggles harder now fear sharp in every movement as she fights against his hold, desperate for any chance at freedom.

Hunter watches helplessly from the floor beside them; his face crumples into silent agony as he realizes there's nothing left he can do here tonight except wait for whatever comes next...

SUDDENLY

The lab door bursts open with forceful impact: LANCE BLACKWOOD storms in, flanked by SECURITY GUARDS who immediately surround Theo and pull him away from Yasmin without hesitation or mercy. The guards shove Theo backward until he falls hard onto the floor near the doorway. Lance strides forward swiftly. His gaze locks instantly on Yasmin. She stands frozen between relief and shock under his commanding presence. Her trembling fingers clutch at loose strands of hair while her wide eyes dart nervously between Lance and Hunter..

LANCE (COLDLY AUTHORITATIVE)

What is going on here?!

His tone brooks no argumentthe atmosphere shifts instantly. He takes another step closer. Then stops. A brief glance downward reveals something unexpected: his polished dress shoe resting firmly atop an overturned metal stool, Lifted slightly higher, the stool tilts precariouslyand suddenlya glass vial slides off its surface. Slowly. It rolls across the floor. Toward Lance's feet. He barely spares it a second look before stepping over it. But thenbefore fully passingit wobbles dangerously. Once. Then twice. Finally. It topples completelywith a soft clink that echoes through silence...

LANCE'S FOOT SWEEPS FORWARD IN A SINGLE MOTION

The bottom edge of his shoe strikes gentlybut deliberatelyagainst THE SIDE OF THE STOOL. That small contact sends it spinning sideways. And THENthe stool FLIPS OVER BACKWARDS. directly TOWARD HIS OWN BODY .

Lance remains perfectly still. No expression flickers across his face. As if time itself has paused around him. Every eye in the room follows that slow-motion arc. They all see what happens next:

The stool lands squarely upon LANCE. Blackwood lets out an abrupt gruntbut does not fall. Or stagger. He absorbs its full weight without flinching. The sound reverberates sharply through still air. Force radiating upwardfrom heel to spineto chest. then dissipating silently within solid muscle. A steady beat beneath cold steel. Nowhere else left for impact. Lance remains upright. Unmoved. Unyielding. The scene freezes completely. In perfect balance. Atop black leather. From polished sole. To rigid torso. All strength contained. Within single unbroken line. Of iron will. And absolute control.....

17

THEN

Slow motion shatters into real-time chaos. The heavy wooden stool finally settles. Above Lance . And behind him .

Its rounded edge COLLIDES WITH HIS SPINE .

A sudden CRACK rips through quiet air . Pain erupts instantly along rigid bones . Blackwood staggers violently. Forced forward. By crushing force. From behind. Stool rolling downwards. Momentum driving body ahead. Crushing ribs. Shattering vertebrae. Under relentless pressure. Lance collapesdontofloor , helplessand broken....

Everyone gasps simultaneously. Shock rippling outward. Yet still amidst destruction Blackwood clings stubbornly to command. Presence unbroken. Strength undiminished.

LANCE'S EYES LOCK ONTO HUNTER AND YASMIN

YASMIN
(coldly)

And while we're at it my research deserves equal recognition. It's been buried long enough because of corporate politicsand now it's finally time the world sees the truth behind Blackstone Capital's bioengineering projects.

Hunter glances at Yasmin brieflya flicker of appreciation mixed with frustrationbut his attention snaps back to Claire as he tightens his jaw.

HUNTER

(low growl)

We still have unfinished businessboth personal and professional. Don't think this ends here just because you grabbed the CEO seat first.

Claire smirks arrogantly, crossing her arms under her sharp suit jacket as she takes a step closer to them bothher voice dripping with condescension and challenge.

(sneering)

Oh please You two old fools are nothing without me running things now. Just stay out of my way before I decide who stays on this shipand who gets thrown overboard!

Suddenly, an urgent message flashes across all screens in the roomthe red alert symbol blinks ominously as emergency protocols kick in. The door bursts open again this time it's Theo Petrov , breathless from sprinting down several flights of stairs .

Theo (V. O.)This can't wait until morning...

101

He slams a data drive onto the table between them all eyes locked onto Hunter's cold gaze .

THEO
(breathless)
Sir... there's been another outbreak outside . The creatures' evolution rate has accelerated exponentially within just hours they've developed advanced hunting instincts . If we don't intervene immediately , entire colonies could be wiped out by midnight !

Hunter snatches up the drive without hesitation , scanning its contents fast enough that even Claire flinches slightly at his speed . His expression hardens instantly .

HUNTER
(urgent command)
Lockdown protocol Alpha-3 now ! Full containment measures throughout every sector ! No one leaves or enters until further notice !

Security guards stationed near exits snap into action almost instantaneously , moving like shadows across polished floors toward their respective posts while locking down doors securely behind themselves

Yasmin straightens instinctively beside himas if responding to some unspoken signal between equals. She catches Theo's eye briefly before speaking calmly but decisively :

(quiet resolve)

Theo prepare our response unit for immediate deployment. I'm coming too. No one knows these creatures better than us. That means stopping their evolution before dawn is our only option if we want any chance left at survival

Theo nods firmly without hesitation. And then suddenlywithout warningthey both turn sharply toward Hunter. First their gazes lock tightly together. Then slowly, their bodies move simultaneously. Hunter grabs hold of Yasmin Fletcher 's wrist firmly.

But instead of resisting, she meets his touch head-on. Her grip locks around his forearm tightly. They share a brief glance filled with intensity. Yet neither hesitates. They break apart smoothly, in perfect sync. As one cohesive force ready for battle ahead..

CLAIRE'S SMUGNESS VANISHES IN AN INSTANT. SHE STANDS FROZEN FOR A MOMENT BEFORE REALIZING WHAT'S HAPPENING. FURY REPLACES

HER ARROGANCE IMMEDIATELY:

CLAIRE
(shouting hysterically)
Wait! What do you think you're doing?! You can't leave like this! This meeting isn't over!

Before anyone else can react, the conference room doors slam shut loudly. Both Hunters & Yasmins vanish down stairwells almost instantly. Two figures disappear into darkness. Without looking back or giving another word Claire's face flushes with anger, her eyes blazing as she stares at the departing backs of Hunter and Yasmin.

CLAIRE
(voice sharp, trembling)
Unbelievable! They just left without me!

She slams her fist on the table, papers scattering across the polished surface.

(gritting teeth)
I'm running this company. I should be leading every missionespecially one this critical!

Her assistant stands stiffly nearby, avoiding eye contact.

ASSISTANT
(softly)
Ma'am... perhaps we could

Before he finishes, Claire cuts him off with a sharp gesture.

CLAIRE
(furious)
No "perhaps"! Find them. Bring them backnow!

The assistant nods hurriedly and rushes out. Claire turns to the empty doorway, seething but powerless.

INT./EXT. MONTAGE OF HUNTER AND YASMIN ON THE MOVE

A series of quick shots shows Hunter sprinting through corridors while Yasmin moves swiftly beside himthey communicate silently but urgently as they navigate twists and turns toward their destination.

INT. BIO-ENGINEERING LABORATORY NIGHT

Yasmin carefully places a sample under a microscope; her brow furrows in concentration as tiny movements flicker across the lens viewa living organism evolving before her eyes.

YASMIN (V. O.)
This level of mutation it's not natural acceleration anymoreit must be triggered by something external some kind of catalyst Suddenlythe lab door bursts open with force. Theo storms in without warning; his expression is cold and furious.

THEO
(cutting straight to confrontation)
What are you doing here?

Yasmin jumps slightly but quickly regains composure; she steps forward defensively between Theo and Hunter who follows closely behind herhis gaze icy and unreadable toward Theo's intrusion into their space.

HUNTER
(flat tone)
You don't belong here eitherthat device has strict access controls for a reasonto prevent contamination or sabotage from unauthorized personnel like yourself!

THEO
(snarling)
Contamination? Who gave you that authority anyway?!

105

Hunter doesn't flinch; his stance remains firmand unyieldingas he locks eyes onto Theo's glare without hesitation or remorse whatsoever

HUNTER
(deadpan delivery)
My wife doesand so do I now...

Theo freezes momentarily at those wordsbut then lunges forward aggressively toward Yasmin insteadwith pure rage burning deep inside his stare

THEO
(shouting fiercely over top)

You're mine! And no one better thinks otherwise!!

Before anyone can react furtherthe lab alarm suddenly blares loudly throughout entire facility signaling an emergency lockdown protocol initiated immediately due to breach detection somewhere near outer perimeter zone 3B!!

All three turn sharply towards sound source direction instantlywith panic written clearly all over faces once again

(panicked)
What now? We're trapped in here!

YASMIN
(urgently)
This was triggered by someonewhoever disabled the system must have reactivated it remotely.

HUNTER
(grimly scanning his surroundings)
No sign of him anymore He's gone.

THEO
(smirking coldly)
Looks like I'm stuck with you two idiots until this lockdown ends. Enjoy your company.

Claire steps forward, her expression venomous as she glares at Theo, then shifts her stare to Hunter and Yasmin.

CLAIRE
(low, dangerous)
You two... I warned you about keeping me out of things! Now look where we are locked down and vulnerable because of your reckless decisions!

Hunter meets her gaze without flinching, voice steady but firm.

HUNTER
(calmly)

107

We didn't choose this situation lightly. Our priority is protecting everyone on this planet even if that means making hard calls without consulting you every step of the way.

Claire scoffs bitterly and turns away to glare at Yasmin instead.
Her tone drips with disdain:

(hissing)
And what about you? A so-called bioengineer playing hero while overlooking basic security protocols?

YASMIN
(firmly meeting Claire's eyes)
I don't need lectures from someone who clearly doesn't understand containment procedures or planetary biosafety standards

Before their argument can escalate further, Hunter suddenly places a hand on Yasmin's shoulder to stop her.
His sharp glance toward Claire cuts through the tension:

(authoritative)
Enough! This isn't time for petty blame gameswe've got bigger problems right now.
He gestures toward a nearby monitor displaying chaotic data streams:

HUNTER (CONT'D)
(pointing at screen)
Lookthe ecosystem is destabilizing faster than we anticipated. We need to recalibrate those settings immediately before everything spirals out of control!

108

As they rush toward the console together under Hunter's command, the camera lingers briefly on Claire's clenched fists before cutting away her face twisted into an expression somewhere between fury and resignation, realizing she has no choice but follow them into whatever chaos awaits next...

YASMIN
(urgent)
If we don't stabilize this soon, the entire ecosystem here could collapse within hours.

HUNTER
(focused)
I'm on it. Just give me a few more minutes to recalibrate the containment fields.

Suddenly, an alarm blares throughout the lab. Both of them flinch but keep working without missing a beat.

CLAIRE (O. S.)
(panicked)
What's happening now?

Hunter spins around to see Claire rushing in, her expression tense and breathless from running across the compound in heels.

HUNTER

(grim)
Sabotage triggered lockdown protocols. We're trapped until security clears itbut that could take hours under these conditions!

Claire's eyes widen in shock before narrowing with determination as she strides toward them.

(commanding)
Then let me help you stabilize this planet faster! I know exactly what needs to be donetrust me!

Yasmin stiffens slightly at Claire's sudden interference but doesn't interrupt immediately.

YASMIN (V. O.)
(skeptical)
She barely understands our research Why does she suddenly sound so confident about planetary stabilization?

Hunter studies Claire for a moment before stepping forward and placing a firm hand on her shoulder.

HUNTER
(calm authority)
We don't have time for doubts or distractions right now. Your expertise is invaluablejust stick to your role and trust us to handle ours, okay?

Claire hesitates for only half a second before nodding resolutelyand then immediately starts barking orders like she owns the place again.

CLAIRE
(firm command)

Alright then! Let's begin by adjusting atmospheric pressure gradients

Yasmin rolls her eyes discreetly while Hunter shoots Claire an amused yet patient look as they dive back into their work together under mounting pressure.

YASMIN
(gritting her teeth)
Understood.

They move quickly between stations, adjusting valves and monitoring gauges as tension rises.

A loud CRASH echoes as a nearby console sparks and smokes.

CLAIRE lunges forward to steady Yasmin's hands on the keyboard.

Theo rushes in from outsidehis coat dusted with dirt, eyes wildgrabbing Claire by the shoulders.

THEO
(shouting over chaos)
We have a situation! The containment dome just cracked open near Sector 7!

Everyone freezes. The room falls silent except for distant rumbling and faint screeches outside.

Hunter slams his fist onto a nearby table, sending papers flying.

HUNTER
(furious roar)
What?! That dome was supposed to be impenetrable after reinforcement! How did this happen?!

Claire stares at him wide-eyedher voice barely audible through trembling lips:

(struggling with controls)
If I can get these systems rebooted... maybe ten minutes at most. But that's assuming nothing else is damaged.

Claire paces nervously near the entrance doors of the dome.
